and to recognise the important contributions made in various fields.

The awards are intended for various age groups of volunteers, volunteer organisations as well as companies which support voluntary organisations. The voluntary sector is a key contributor in various fields such as social, humanitarian, health, environment, animal welfare, disability, cultural, education, sports and for this it should be celebrated.

So let us prepare to nominate those who deserve our appreciation and celebrate their work, serving as an inspiration to others.

Look out for the calls!

Let us celebrate volunteers and volunteerism!
