Relations with a Superpower: Malta and the United States of America

Public Lecture

Il-Haġar Museum continues with its series of Saturday lectures on 4 May 2024 at 11:00 with what promises to be an interesting talk by Dr George Vital Zammit who will be touching on some salient points in the history of Malta's relations with the United States of America.

Dr George Vital Zammit is a Senior lecturer at the Department of Public Policy within the Faculty of Economics, Management and Accountancy (FEMA), University of Malta. He read for Bachelor Degrees in Business and Computing as well as in Management, and a Masters in Diplomatic Studies. In 2011 he obtained a doctorate in Politics at the University of Sheffield, with a thesis on the international dimension of party groups within the European Parliament. Prior to academia, Dr Zammit served as a public officer at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ministry for Education, and the Office of the Prime Minister. He served as Head of Department (Public Policy) and Deputy Dean of FEMA. In 2019, he was Fulbright Scholar (2019) at Rutgers University, USA.

Admission to the Museum is free but seat reservations are recommended by sending an email to events@heartofgozo.org.mt.

This will also be an opportunity to visit and enjoy the newly inaugurated exhibition, The Giuseppe Galea Collection, which will remain open until Sunday 16 June 2024 during the museum opening hours of 09:00 to 17:00. Admission to Il-Haġar Museum remains free.
